KGA Hires General Counsel

Allyson Honaker, of Goss Samford, PLLC to Serve as Association's Top Legal Aide

Lexington, Kentucky (4/24/2017) – The Kentucky Gas Association has announced the hire of Allyson Honaker to serve as the Association's top legal aide. As General Counsel to KGA, Allyson will provide legal counsel to KGA and the Association's members, giving them access to legal consultation and representation tailored specifically to the needs of any KGA member organization. Matt Tackett, KGA Executive Director, relayed that "[t]he Association is thrilled to add Allyson to the KGA administrative family. The mission of KGA is to protect our memberships' interest in commerce, and Allyson's service as General Counsel will greatly strengthen the Association's service portfolio. Allyson is talented with incredible experience working on behalf of the Commonwealth's energy and utility industries, and I am very excited for this new KGA initiative."
